Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Megan Sweet is a native of Oregon and a graduate of Southwest State University; and,

Whereas, Megan has worked for the Department of Labor in Sioux Falls for 7 years and served the citizens of that area, as well as the entire state, admirably during that time; and,

Whereas, Megan was a member of the South Dakota State Employees Organization (SDSEO) and served as the SDSEO Chapter 7 president; and,

Whereas, Megan and her husband, Larry, and their son, Xander, are outstanding members of the Sioux Falls community; and,

Whereas, Megan has always exhibited great leadership qualities and an outstanding work ethic, but due to circumstances related to her health, found it necessary to retire from state government on May 7, 2004; and,

Whereas, The SDSEO and Megan's coworkers will gather on May 27, 2004, to recognize Megan for her dedication and service to the state of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to add his well wishes as she retires:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 27, 2004, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
